

SEND ONE TODAY

DMs With Love

One message could change someone's day.

When was the last time someone sent you a message you weren't expecting, just to let you know they cared?

Sometimes a few words arriving at exactly the right moment can mean more than we realize.

Your phone is already in your hand. Who could you reach out to today?

Thinking of you today. ♥

I appreciate you more than I probably tell you.

Just a reminder... you're doing great.

Just checking in. How are you really doing?

I'm so grateful to have you in my life.

You've got this. I'm cheering you on.

You make a difference in my life just by being you.

Sending a little love your way today. ♥

Something about you inspires me. Just wanted you to know.

Hey just wanted to tell you today the world is better with you in it.

I hope something really good happens for you today.

I am so proud of you. You got this today.

HOW DID IT FEEL?

How did it make the person you sent it to feel?

How did sending it make you feel?

A few words. A few seconds. A real connection.
